The Mall is located in Whitehouse Station, a community within Readington Township. It is situated in the heart of Hunterdon County and the dynamically growing ROUTE 78 CORRIDOR. The trade area boasts one of the highest household incomes in the USA at over $125,000 per household (within a 5 miles radius).

There are a multitude of corporate facilities in the immediate surrounding area. Quick Chek, a leader in the metropolitan fresh convenience industry with over 140 locations, is headquartered in Whitehouse Station; Chubb Corporation's office park of approximately 500,000 sq.ft.; Readington Commons office complex just 1.1 miles west under construction, amongst other projects.

Nearby noteworthy residential developments include K. Hovnanian's 577 unit condominium and single family housing complex a half mile west on Route 22, and Toll Brothers, The Regency, a 210 unit residential housing development which is under construction, comprised of 137 town homes and 73 single family units. Immediately adjacent and to the rear of our Center are 290 townhouse units known as Whitehouse Village.

A recently published article by the Philly Voice ranked Readington the number one place to live in New Jersey. The ranking process considered over 400 communities to live in NJ, using factors such as population, unemployment rate, median household income, education, commute time, and crime. You've got to visit this incredible area to appreciate what's going on! We would be happy to meet you to conduct a personal tour of the mall and its surroundings, which are virtually exploding with potential!

Please give us a call if you're interested in leasing space in this truly amazing location!
